

THE ENFYYS

THE CHANGE

There was a time when I only thought about my work
There was a time when I ran after success
There was a time when I lived to push the limits
A time to reach new heights

Why does it always need certain events? (And)
Why does something always have to happen?

Woohoooo wohoooo
Woohoooo wohoooo

Are we just to stupid to notice when we're on the wrong way?
Or do we only need to be awake at the right time?
Are we just to stupid to notice when we're on the wrong way?
Or do we only need to be awake at the right time?

There was a time when I didn't have any time for friends
There was a time when family was my second place
There was a time when I took no room for myself
A time to rise again

Why does it always need certain events? (And)
Why does something always have to happen?

Woohoooo wohoooo
Woohoooo wohoooo

Are we just to stupid to notice when we're on the wrong way?
Or do we only need to be awake at the right time?
Are we just to stupid to notice when we're on the wrong way?
Or do we only need to be awake at the right time?

Every change offers us new chances and a new beginning
Every change let's us decide what to do next
Every change should make us think if we are always right
Every change could bring us something better if we believe

Woohoooo wohoooo
Woohoooo wohoooo

Are we just to stupid to notice when we're on the wrong way?
Or do we only need to be awake at the right time?
Are we just to stupid to notice when we're on the wrong way?
Or do we only need to be awake at the right way?

Woohoooo wohoooo
